

UNIVERSIDAD
DE GRANADA

DECLARATION OF RESPONSIBILITY AS A PARTICIPANT IN INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY PROGRAMMES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GRANADA

INCOMING STUDENTS - ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023

The health situation derived from the Covid-19 pandemic continues to affect International Mobility. Therefore, in order to guarantee the safety of participants of international mobility programmes during the academic year 2022-2023 and always in accordance with the UGR's International Student Mobility Regulations, it is foreseen that the conditions and commitments of the academic year 2021-2022 will continue in force and must be accepted by UGR's participants in mobility programmes.

Incoming mobilities to the UGR may be implemented in the academic year 2022-2023, provided that the following conditions are met:

1. The health situation and regulations in force in both Spain and the country of origin allow the mobilities to take place.
2. The sending institution authorises the physical (in-person) mobility of the participants.

By means of this document, and for the duration of their mobility period at the UGR, the signatory agrees to:

- Ensure their own safety.
- Be familiar with the regulations in force related to the current health crisis in Spain.

DE GRANADA

- Fully adhere to all the preventive measures in force in Spain and at the University of Granada.
- Register with and maintain contact with the consular office of their country of origin or nationality.
- Expressly accept the possible modifications that may occur, due to the pandemic, to the teaching, learning and assessment modes, or to their work plan, at the University of Granada.
